At the hearing, Defendant waived the timing of his right to proffer information at a detention hearing, waived findings, and also waived his right to a preliminary hearing on his probation revocation under Federal Rule of Criminal Procedure 32.1, while retaining his right to seek release at a later hearing should his circumstances change.

The Court hereby detains Defendant, but because he has waived his right to present information under 18 U.S.C. § 3143 without prejudice to raising relevant information at a later hearing, the Court orders that the detention hearing may be reopened at Defendant's request at any future time.

Defendant shall remain committed to the custody of the Attorney General for confinement in a corrections facility separate, to the extent practicable, from persons awaiting or serving sentences or being held in custody pending appeal. Defendant shall be afforded reasonable opportunity for private consultation with counsel. On order of a court of the United States or on

1 request of an attorney for the Government, the person in charge of the corrections facility in
2 which Defendant is confined shall deliver Defendant to a United States marshal for the purpose of
3 an appearance in connection with a court proceeding.
